In December 2020 the Federal Government approved $4.3 billion in additional aid for K-12 education in New York. In March 2021 the American Rescue Plan delivers an additional $9 billion in federal aid to New York's public schools; but this funding is not accounted for in the current budget proposals. Yellow highlights are recommendations that should be included in the enacted budget.
| Local District Funding Adjustment | The executive proposal includes a new cut to state aid, the Local District Funding Adjustment totaling $1.35 billion. This cut is equivalent to the smaller of amount of either a district’s STAR payment* OR their allocation of COVID-19 Supplemental Stimulus (whichever is the smaller amount). This adjustment, if accepted by the legislature, will apply to 2021-22 and for years after (it does not expire). | The Local District Adjustment is rejected. | The Local District Adjustment is rejected. |
| Phase-in of Foundation Aid Formula | Governor Cuomo has not committed to a multi-year investment to meet the state’s constitutional obligation of “a Sound Basic Education” for all students. | Three year phase-in to fulfill the state’s obligation to fully fund chronically underfunded schools by 2023-24. | Three Year Phase-in to fulfill the state’s obligation to fully fund chronically underfunded schools by 2023-24. |
| | The proposed increase for 2021-22 is $1.4 billion, with a commitment of bringing all school districts to a minimum of 60% of their remaining Foundation Aid, if they have any. | The proposed increase for 2021-22 is $1.37 billion, with a commitment of bringing all school districts to a minimum of 60% of their remaining Foundation Aid, if they have any. |
| | The Senate proposes a guaranteed increase of Foundation Aid of 2% to all school districts, including wealthy ones. | The Senate proposes a new Foundation Aid formula that is based on different tiers. | |
| Services Aid- Consolidation of Expense-Based Aids | The proposal merges 11 existing expense-based aids into a different category of aid called Services Aid. The executive proposal also implements a cut with the “Services Aid.” This formula is regressive, 98% of the cuts affect high needs districts, with 90% of the cut made to New York City. | The Assembly rejects the consolidation of expense based aid and restores the embedded cut. | The Senate rejects the consolidation of expense based aid and restores the embedded cut. |

Creating a Positive School Climate

The executive budget includes no increase in funding to the following initiatives:

- The executive proposal maintains My Brother’s Keeper, a program to improve outcomes for young boys and young men of color, though it allows the State Education Department to transfer a portion of the $18 million for the program to any other program or fund within SED. The program will use any unexpended funds from prior years.

- The executive budget maintains the $3 million provided for restorative justice practices and alternatives discipline and trauma informed education from prior years.

- The executive proposal discontinues funding for the $2 million Safe and Supportive Schools grant and the $500,000 teacher diversity grant for Buffalo from prior years.

The Assembly provides $1 million for implicit bias training.

The Assembly provides $10 million for homeless students, including funding for trauma informed practices in schools.

The Assembly provides $10 million to support mental health in schools.

The Senate provides $1 million for implicit bias training for teachers.

Culturally Responsive Education

The executive budget includes no increase in funding to the following initiative:

- The executive budget discontinues funding for the $1 million for the instruction of civic values, diversity history and religious freedom.

The Assembly proposal provides $500,000 for the Teacher Diversity Pipeline Pilot.

The Senate proposal provides $300,000 to establish a workgroup to collaborate with the State Education Department to create racially and culturally inclusive curriculum and resources for schools to use in grades K-12.
Special Education

The executive proposal includes a provision to provide broad waivers from laws and regulations regarding class size, behavior intervention plans, and notification of changes in placement.

These waivers have been included every year in the executive proposal. If passed, they will take away some students’ rights. The legislature has rejected this provision every year it was proposed.

The executive does NOT increase reimbursement rates for preschool special education providers.

Student Welcome Grants

The executive budget includes no increase in funding to the following initiative:

The executive proposal maintains the $1.5 million for a refugee and immigrant student welcome program.

Adult Literacy Education

The Executive proposal funds Adult Literacy Education at $6.293,000, a decrease of $1.5 million.

The Assembly restores the $1.5 million cut to Adult Literacy Education

The Senate restores the $1.5 million cut to Adult Literacy Education

---

The Senate proposal rejects a provision to provide broad waivers from laws and regulations regarding class size, behavior intervention plans, and notification of changes in placement, which includes preschool special education.

The Senate includes language that would increase the reimbursement rate for preschool special education in accordance to the rate of increase of school aid.

<th>Technology Access for Students</th>
<th>The Executive proposal includes a $15 cap on Broadband for Low-Income Families.</th>
<th>The Assembly proposal adds $15 million for a new digital inclusion program that would award grants to local governments, not-for-profits, schools, libraries, and other community-based organizations. This program would assist marginalized individuals/households with getting access to broadband internet, internet-accessible devices, as well as digital literacy education and tech support.</th>
<th>The Senate proposal includes Senate Education Chair Shelley Mayer’s ‘E-LEARN Act’ which would provide funding to school districts to work with internet providers to offer broadband access to every student and school in the State to ensure that all children have access to education for the duration of the pandemic without any cost to the family or the individual school.</th>

<td>Child Care</td>
<td>The executive proposal included $46 million of repurposed federal dollars (from the Child Care Development Block Grant): $40 million for child care subsidies and $6 million for start-up child care programs in child care deserts. The executive proposal makes no mention of the $450 million that the state is receiving in the COVID-19 relief package passed in December.</td>
<td>The Assembly provides language to direct up to $1.83 billion in anticipated federal child care aid to priority areas, including expanding access to families up to 85 percent of the state median income, expanding access to priority groups not currently in receipt of subsidies, limiting copays, compensation for absences, and workforce stabilization investments. The Assembly proposal also provides $500 million for additional state child care to support providers and families to expand eligibility and access to subsidies.</td>
<td>The Senate proposal includes a cap of the co-pays that families receive subsidies at 10%.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Revenues</td>
<td>The executive proposal includes only a temporary surcharge on those who make over $5 million and then again over $100 million, resulting in only $1.5 billion annually. This surcharge will be completely refunded to those who prepay it for three years.</td>
<td>The Assembly budget proposal includes increased revenues that total nearly $7 billion in SFY 2021-22.</td>
<td>The Senate proposal would increase revenue by $6.5 Billion this year, but jump up to $7.7 Billion next year, largely from a $600 million increase in PIT and $400 million increase in corporate rate.</td>
